ESG Latam Fund, a Sub-Fund of ZCH AM SICAV, A (ISIN: LU1881476318)

The management company of the Fund is SANNE LIS S.A.

Objectives and investment policy

The Sub-Fund has been categorized as an ESG Promotion Strategy Sub-Fund, as promoting, among other characteristics environmental and social characteristics, which are a binding component, for assets selection and investment decision - making process, and the companies in which the Sub-Fund shall invest in need to follow good governance practices, in accordance with article 8 of SFDR.

The Sub-Fund seeks to provide long-term capital growth by investing principally in equity securities issued by Latin American companies, and American Depositary Receipts of Latin American companies, while aiming to maximize value for investors by selecting companies with highest ESG ratings and criteria within their industry. The Sub-Fund aims to provide an active management over the MSCI Emerging Markets Latin America ESG leaders index (GU 145841 Index). This index is designed to ensure the binding inclusion of the best-in-class target companies (i.e. with the highest ESG rated performance) in each sector of the parent index, the MSCI Emerging Markets Latin America Index.

The Sub-Fund is actively managed, and the Sub-Fund may deviate from the index. The degree of freedom allowed within the management of the Sub-Fund is material.

The Sub-Fund aims to achieve diversification in terms of sectors offering a core exposure to the Latin American stock markets and to companies listed on a stock exchange outside the Latin American region, but which generate a significant part of their income in or from Latin America and/or which have their registered office in Latin America.

Investments may be denominated in USD or other Latin American currencies. Currency risks may be hedged entirely or partially against USD through the use of financial derivative instruments including currency forwards or futures.

The Sub-Fund may suit investors seeking for a diversified and growth orientated investment strategy and is appropriate for investors who are investing for long-term capital growth and who are willing to accept market volatility.

Investors may demand to redeem their shares every normal bank business day in Luxembourg.

The revenues of the Fund will be distributed yearly after the financial year end.

The Sub-Fund is appropriate for investors with a time investment horizon exceeding 5 years.

Risk and reward profile

More about this rating

- The risk category is based on return volatility over the last five years. The method used for this estimation depends on the type of fund.
- Historical data may not be a reliable indication for the future.
- The risk category shown is not guaranteed and may vary over time.
- The lowest category does not mean 'risk free'.

Why is this fund in Category 6?

The Fund will be mainly invested in equities issued by Latin American companies and then will be mainly exposed to emerging markets stocks. Emerging markets are at an early stage of development which may involve a high level of price volatility, lower market transparency, regulatory hurdles, corporate governance and political and social challenges. There is increased return potential and higher risk as reflected in the risk category.

Further material risks:

- Operational risk: the Sub-Fund's operations depend on third parties and it may suffer disruption or loss in the event of their failure.
- Liquidity risk: A Sub-Fund is exposed to the risk that a particular investment or position cannot be easily unwound or offset due to insufficient market depth or market disruption.
- Financial techniques: the Sub-Fund may use financial derivative instruments to hedge (minimize) risks. This may not be effective and, depending on market movements, may reduce gains or accentuate losses in the sub-fund.
- Counterparty risk: a counterparty may fail to repay or otherwise withstand contractual obligations to the Sub-Fund.
- ESG risk: The integration of ESG criteria and sustainability factors within, the investment process and assets' selection may affect the Sub-Fund's performance and thus the Sub-Fund may perform differently compared to Sub-Funds that do not apply such approach.
- Sustainability risks: Sustainability risks can arise from impacts of environmental and social factors on assets as well as from the corporate governance of the issuer of assets held by the Sub-Fund.
